ARBOR DAY

- WHEREAS, in 1872, J. Sterling Morton proposed to the Nebraska Board of Agriculture that a special day be set aside for the planting of trees; and
- WHEREAS, this holiday, called Arbor Day, was first observed with the planting of more than a million trees in Nebraska, and Arbor Day is now observed throughout the nation and the world; and
- WHEREAS, trees reduce the erosion of our precious topsoil by wind and water, cut heating and cooling costs, moderate the temperature, clean the air, produce oxygen and provide habitat for wildlife; and
- WHEREAS, trees are a renewable resource giving us paper, wood for our homes, fuel for our fires and countless other wood products; and
- WHEREAS, trees in our city increase property values, enhance the economic vitality of business areas and beautify our community; and
- WHEREAS, trees, wherever they are planted, are a source of joy and spiritual renewal; and
- WHEREAS, Muscatine has been recognized as a Tree City USA by The National Arbor Day Foundation and desires to continue its tree-planting practices;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DeWayne Hopkins, Mayor of the City of Muscatine, Iowa, do hereby proclaim April 27, 2012 as Arbor Day in the City of Muscatine, and I urge all citizens to celebrate Arbor Day and to support efforts to protect our trees and woodlands and further, I urge all citizens to plant trees to gladden the heart and promote the well-being of this and future generations.

Signed and sealed this 5th day of April, 2012.

PROCLAMATION

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION MONTH

“Protecting Children is Everyone’s Business”

WHEREAS, Iowa’s children are one of the most precious resources in our city and provide the hope for a brighter tomorrow;

WHEREAS, protecting children is everyone’s business and we can promote and support safe and healthy families in our community through partnering to protect children; and

WHEREAS, child abuse is a community issue and finding solutions depends on involvement and partnerships among people throughout the community; and

WHEREAS, effective child abuse prevention succeeds because of partnerships created by parents, practitioners, schools, faith communities, health care organizations, law enforcement agencies, community leaders, politicians and the business community; and

WHEREAS, all citizens need to be more aware of child abuse and neglect and its prevention in the community and be involved in supporting parents to raise their children in a safe, nurturing society;

WHEREAS, public awareness regarding child abuse and neglect is encouraged by the Prevent Child Abuse Iowa and Muscatine County Child Abuse Response and Education System (CARES).

Therefore, I, DeWayne Hopkins, Mayor, do hereby proclaim the month of April 2012, as Child Abuse Prevention Month in the City of Muscatine, Iowa, and urge all citizens, community agencies, religious organizations, medical facilities, and businesses to partner in efforts to prevent child abuse and neglect, thereby strengthening the community in which we live.

IN WITNESS THEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name to be affixed this 5th day of April, 2012.

DeWayne Hopkins, Mayor
