

Muscatine County Board of Supervisors
Monday, February 22, 2021

The Muscatine County Board of Supervisors met in regular session at 9:00 A.M. with Holliday, Sauer, Saucedo, Mather and Sorensen present. Chairperson Saucedo presiding.

On a motion by Sorensen, second by Mather, the agenda was approved as presented. Ayes: All.

On a motion by Sorensen, second by Sauer, claims dated February 22, 2021 were approved in the amount of $345,242.53. Ayes: All.

A Public Hearing was called to order by Chairperson Saucedo at 9:02 A.M. to take comments on a confinement feeding operation construction permit application from Lucky LLC (Ryan O'Toole) in Section 29 of 76 Township. Several area citizens spoke in opposition of the application, citing their concerns regarding manure odor and air quality, water usage and quality, reduced property values, sewage run off, impact on road conditions with increased semi traffic and the economic impact on Ardon Creek Vineyard and Winery. The Board of Supervisors also acknowledged receipt of multiple emails as well as a petition opposing the application. Rachel Rinner with Knee Deep Solutions LLC stated that most of the concerns being expressed by area residents are addressed in the Master Matrix, noting the scoring criteria of the matrix are set by state law. Ryan O'Toole of Lucky LLC stated the facility will be placed on his father's farm and the site selection is set as far away as possible from Ardon Creek Vineyard and Winery.

On a motion by Sorensen, second by Holliday, the public hearing was closed at 9:50 a.m. Roll Call vote. Ayes: All.

On a motion by Sorensen, second by Holliday, the Board approved a letter to the IDNR recommending approval of the Lucky LLC construction permit application, with added conditions regarding establishing a vegetative windbreak along the north and east sides of the confinement buildings to assist with odor mitigation and dispersion and changes to the Manure Management Plan to ensure that no manure is applied closer than one mile from any point of Ardon Creek Vineyards on Independence Avenue. Saucedo requested to delay the vote for two week to allow more time for discussion. Mather stated he will abstain from the vote as both parties are represented by his law firm. Roll call vote. Ayes: Holliday, Sorensen, Sauer. Opposed: Saucedo. Abstain: Mather.

A public hearing was called to order by Chairperson Saucedo at 9:56 A.M. on the proposed FY21/22 Muscatine County maximum property tax dollars for general county services and rural county services.

On a motion by Sorensen, second by Mather, the Board approved Resolution #02-22-21-01 authorizing FY21/22 Maximum Property Tax Dollars. Roll call vote: Ayes: All.
