FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
NOVEMBER 16, 2022

UPDATED TO ADD CANDIDATE NAMES

MEET & GREET FOR POLICE CHIEF CANDIDATES

City to host public event at Musser Library 4-5:30 p.m. on November 17

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The City of Muscatine will be hosting a public meeting Thursday (Nov. 17) for citizens of Muscatine to visit with the six candidates for Muscatine Chief of Police. The event will take place from 4-5:30 p.m. on the third floor of the Musser Public Library and HNI Community Center.

Current Muscatine Police Chief Brett Talkington will retire from his position in March 2023. The City of Muscatine has been interviewing prospective candidates during the past month and have invited six finalists, three internal and three from outside of Muscatine, to visit the community this week.

The three internal candidates are Assistant Chief Steve Snider, Patrol Captain Anthony (Tony) Kies, and Lieutenant/Shift Commander Jeff Jirak. The three external candidates are Deputy Chief Daniel Hostens, Galesburg, Ill., Major Adam Schaefer, Burlington, Iowa, and Derrick Turner, Chief for Mobile Airport Authority, Mobile, Ala.
